

Application Procedure For Advanced Musical Study
Through The Ravi Shankar Foundation

One of the goals of The Ravi Shankar Foundation is to help outstanding young musicians pursue further study in Indian Classical Music. We seek to encourage and advance their studies either at The Ravi Shankar Centre in New Delhi or by recommending a suitable teacher in their own area.

If you would like to be considered for one of these programs, please send us the following:

Name, date of birth

Contact information: address, telephone, e-mail address

Present vocation

A brief history of your musical experience and aspirations

A videotape or a DVD of yourself performing a short piece

Please mail your application package to us at:
